

Best • of • Southwest • Missouri

Polk County, Missouri

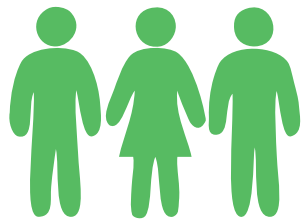

From Cattle to Computers

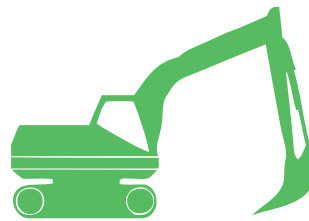

It's YOUR business!

Do you own, operate or want to start a business in Polk County?

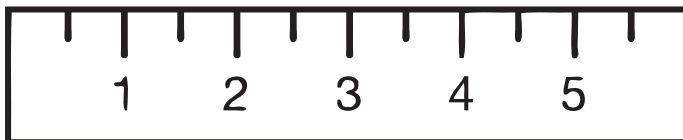

Do you want to add people to your workforce?

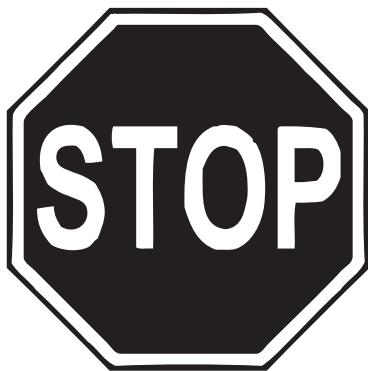

Do you need to add new equipment?

Do you need to enlarge your facilities?

Do you need to expand your business?

Then STOP! Before you do any of the above, contact

PEDCO

Polk County Economic Development Coalition

for help with possible financing, tax credits, economic assistance, land and office procurement and workforce development that could save you money while you grow your business in Polk County. Learn what programs are available for you in Polk County. Sure, your business may not qualify for every program, but let's talk about your plans and find out what will work for your business. Your business is important to Polk County!

Polk County is open for business and we're ready to help.

Call Paula Hubbert 417-399-5360 or Paul Long 417-327-4881 today for more information and thank you for growing your business in Polk County!